“Taking Inventory”

Some states and some locations within states collect inventory tax. At year’s end a store or other business might deliberately deplete its inventory to avoid some of the tax burden. Taking inventory can also help a business see where it has done well and what areas need improvement.

I recommend taking a different kind of inventory. No government entity will tax these things, but we can take a candid look at progress on which we can build as well as weak areas we can strengthen.

God has our complete inventory every day; He knows us better than we know ourselves! King David marveled that God knew his very thoughts: “You understand my thought afar off” (Psalm 139:2). Not only that, but God knew David’s every word: “For there is not a word on my tongue but, behold, O Lord, you know it altogether” (139:4). Taking inventory of our thoughts and words will indicate the condition of our heart, for “out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks” (Matthew 12:34), and “out of the heart proceed evil thoughts” (15:19).

David also knew the ever-present, all-powerful God was worthy of his worship. “I will praise You, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made” (Psalm 139:14). What do you find when you inventory your worship habits?

David valued God’s word: “How precious also are your thoughts to me, O God!” (139:17). How valuable is the Bible to you? Does its value show in your reading and study? Finally,

David pleaded, “Search me, O God, and know my heart . . . and see if there is any wicked way in me” (139:23-24). We wish our inventory of sin would find none. Realistically, though, let’s ask: Are they the same sins we found a year ago? Five years ago? Ten? Are we striving against sin, or marking time, or just floating along with the current?

It’s time to take inventory! -Joe Slater
