“Blessings of Honest Self-Examination”

The Bible calls God's people to examine themselves. The apostle Paul wrote, “Examine yourselves as to whether you are in the faith.” (2 Corinthians 13:5). Self-examination is not meant to discourage us but to help us grow spiritually and remain faithful to the Lord. Just as a doctor examines the body for signs of health, Christians must examine their hearts and lives to determine their spiritual health.

My Relationship with God. Is my relationship with God growing closer to Him? Am I choosing to put the first things first in my life? (Mt. 6:33) How much time am I spending with God in the word? (2 Tim. 2:15) How is my prayer life? (1 Th. 5:17)

My Attitude and Heart. Christianity is not only about outward actions but also inward attitudes. Do I have a spirit of humility, kindness, and forgiveness? Am I harboring bitterness, jealousy, or pride? Proverbs 4:23 reminds us, “Keep your heart with all diligence, for out of it spring the issues of life.”

My Commitment to the Church. The church is the body of Christ, and every member of the body is important for its function. Do I attend faithfully, participate actively, and encourage my brethren? Or have I become spiritually complacent? Faithful Christians understand the importance of worship, fellowship, and service. Does the Lord see me on the day to worship Him? (Jn. 4:24) Am I helping other members to be all that the Lord desires them to be? (Heb. 10:24,25)

My Love for My Brothers & Sisters. Jesus taught that love is the identifying mark of His followers (John 13:34-35). Do my words and actions show genuine love for one another? Am I patient and forgiving, or critical and harsh? Self-examination should lead us to see if we can be identified by His disciples by our love for one another.

My Influence on Others. Every Christian influence's someone—family, friends, coworkers, or neighbors. Are we leading others closer to Christ or pushing them away? Jesus said, “You are the light of the world” (Matthew 5:14). Our daily conduct should reflect the light of Christ.

“But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.” (Jms. 1:25)
