"Be Thankful Always"

"In everything give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you." 1 Th. 5:18

Some days, thanksgiving comes easily. The bills are paid, the family is well, and a prayer has been answered. Other days, we sit beside a hospital bed, come home to a quiet house, or wonder how we will make it through the week. How do we give thanks on those days?

Habakkuk pictured a time when the fig tree would fail to blossom, the fields would yield no food, and the stalls would stand empty. Then he said, "Yet I will rejoice in the LORD, I will joy in the God of my salvation" (Habakkuk 3:17–18). Habakkuk could speak honestly about everything he stood to lose and still rejoice in the God he could depend on.

We can do the same. In the very passage that calls us to give thanks, Paul also says, "Pray without ceasing" (1 Thessalonians 5:17). In the same prayer, we can tell God what hurts and thank Him for hearing us. We can ask Him for strength and thank Him for the brother or sister who called, brought a meal, or sat with us when we needed company. And when we struggle to find the words, we can begin with what we have in Christ: forgiveness of sins and the hope of eternal life (Ephesians 1:7; Titus 1:2).

Whatever this week brings, take a moment to name one thing you can thank God for today. If someone has helped you carry a burden, thank that person too. A few honest words of gratitude can remind both of you how much it means to belong to the Lord and to one another.

Our circumstances may change but God doesn't (Mal. 3:16). Through Tears you can Trust in Him. Through Pain, you can Praise Him. Through Grief you can have Gratitude. Through Hurt there is Hope found in Him.
